

Actionwork Anti Bullying Village
Programme of Events at Glastonbury Festival 2014 in Green Futures Field

Actionwork are the official Anti Bullying Resource Centre for the Glastonbury Festival. In 2014 Actionwork have created the Anti Bullying Village in the Green Futures Field.

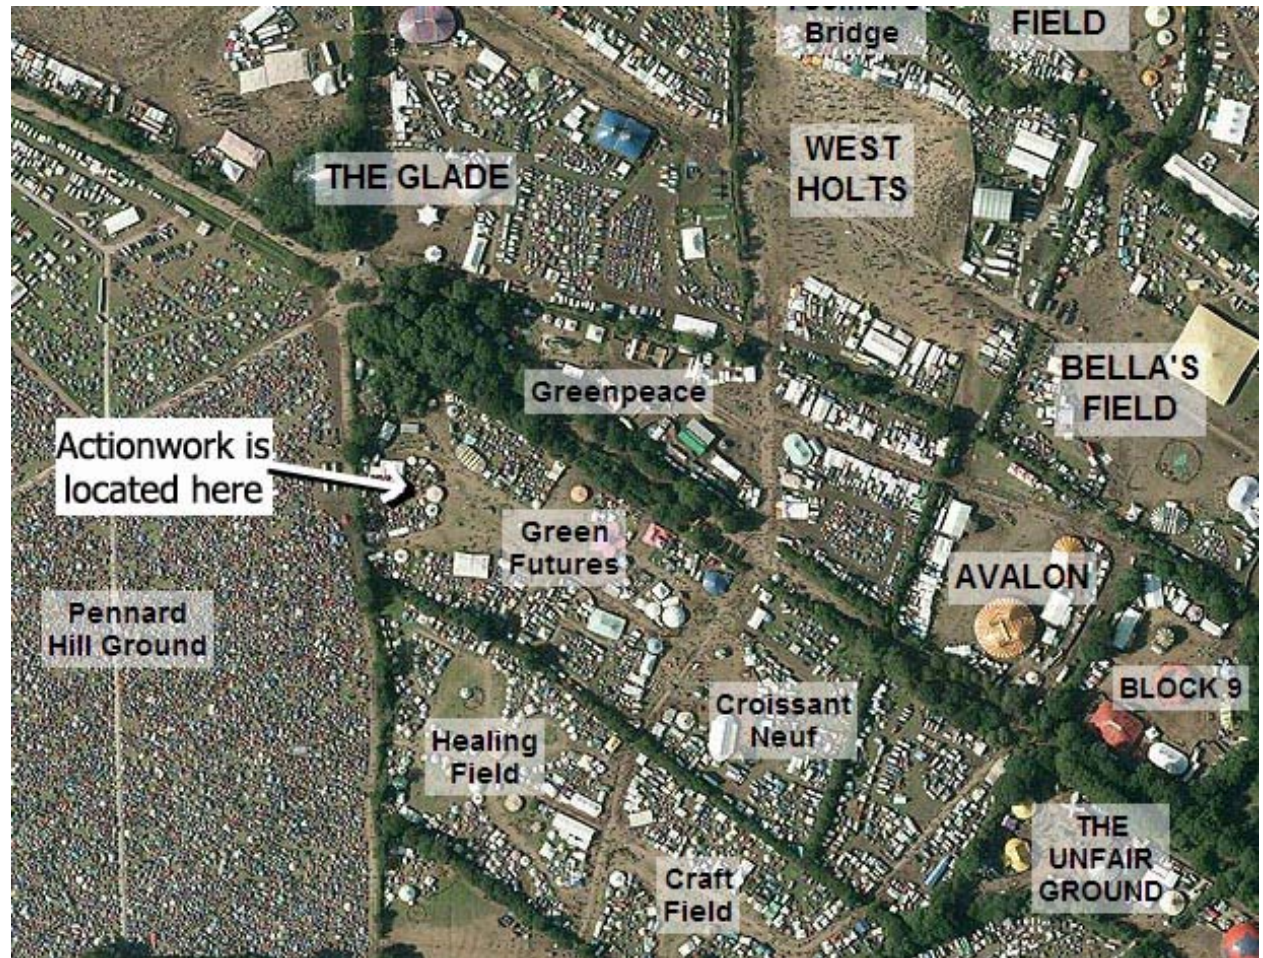

The Actionwork venues in 2014 include the Marquee, the small solar stage, the outside competitive area, anti-bullying information booth and the anti-bullying photo boards.

In addition to the listed programme Actionwork will be performing and organising impromptu workshops, shows, performances and other activities as well as performing in Speakers Forum and the Green Futures First Stop stage.

Join us and help put a stop to bullying while having fun and a great time too.

All of the Actionwork activities and information are free to all festival goers to participate in. In addition to what is on offer in the programme we also provide a confidential counselling service for anyone that may have problems with issues of bullying. Please come and talk to us.
